

Romanian Institute for Research on National Minorities
Sapientia University - International Relations and European Studies

Minorities, immigrants and kinstates in Eastern Europe and “the Global South”

- Workshop and film screening -

Workshop

Luis Escobedo, University of the Free State (UFS), South Africa:
“Storytelling migrants: Agency in the face of categorization, xenophobia, and denial”

Kiss Tamás, Romanian Institute for Research on National Minorities:
“Xenophobia against kin? Factors affecting the attitudes toward ethnic kin communities in Hungary and Romania”

Toró Tibor, “Romanian Institute for Research on National Minorities, Sapientia University: In or out? Identities and boundary constructions among Moldovans living in Cluj”

Film screening and discussion

Arnab Dewan, Independent film-maker:

Life is still not ours

Moderator: Andrea Virginás, Sapientia University, Department of Film,
Photography and Media

Date : Friday, 22 November 2019

Time:

Workshop: 15:00-16:45

Film screening: 17:00-18:00

Discussion: 18:00-19:00

Venue: Sapientia University,
Room A104 (Cluj, Calea Turzii
no. 4)

